WHITE HOUSE BRIDE THANKS THE SENATE

Washington, May 12.—Mrs. Eleanor Wilson McAdoo has written to Senator Martin thanking him and his colleagues for the bracelet given her by the senate on her wedding day. The letter was dated Corinth, N. H., and read as follows:
"The perfectly charming bracelet which you and your colleagues in the senate sent me on my wedding day gave me infinite pleasure, and the generous sentiment that inspired the beautiful gift gave me, if possible, more pleasure than the gift itself. It will always remind me of the wonderful series through which we are now passing and of my associations, indirectly, with the great men in and out of the senate, who are making the history of today."
"I am not kindly expressing deep appreciation and grateful thanks."

BRYAN'S PEACE DOVE RUDELY DISTURBED

Washington, May 12.—The dove of peace in the office of Secretary of State Bryan, was rudely disturbed today when Jacob S. Conner, formerly consul at St. Petersburg, and Frank H. Bland, of the same city, and a confidential clerk, engaged in a fist fight. Mr. Conner was in the room when Secretary Bryan's ante-room while other visitors saw the secretary and combatants were separated after Bland's nose was bruised and Conner's cheek was cut.
Mr. Conner said he had made several ineffectual attempts to see Secretary Bryan to find out why he had been dismissed from the service.

MAPS ARE ALL WRONG, SAYS COL. ROOSEVELT

Bridgeville, Barbados, May 12.—Colonel Theodore Roosevelt today replied to Sir Clements Markham's criticism of his discovery of an unknown river in South America by saying that the British geographer had inaccurately said the greatest possible tribute to what he had done. He declared the best existing maps utterly wrong in relation to all this part of South America.
Mountains given on the maps are, according to the colonel, mostly imaginary.
"The lower part of the river he had been known to rubber gatherers in the upper part as the Carriacou, but it had not been mapped."

WILSON TO REVIEW MEN OF WALL STREET

New York, May 12.—President Wilson is expected to review the parade of the Lower Wall Street Business Men's association on May 13. Previous to the parade there will be an exhibition of old prints and colonial documents.
During the ceremonies the president will read a bronze tablet containing the names of the men collected by the association. This will be given into the custody of the New York Historical society, to be opened in the year 1914.

AGAINST NEGRO BISHOP REV. F. F. REESE ADVISES

Pensioning of Aged Clergy Is Advocated by Episcopal Bishop of Georgia.

Albany, Ga., May 12.—Right Rev. F. F. Reese, Episcopal bishop of Georgia, in presiding his annual address to the diocesan convention this morning, indicated to some very pertinent and interesting allusions to matters of marked interest to the church throughout the state and the south. Discussing the suggestion that there should be a negro bishop in the southern diocese, Bishop Reese said he cannot bring himself to believe this would be the safe and wise settlement of the vexed question of caring for the colored members of the church.
Bishop Reese very earnestly advocated the pensioning of the aged and dependent clergy.

There is a good attendance of lay and clerical delegates. The convention followed an interesting meeting yesterday of the women's auxiliary, whose sessions were held in the Y. M. C. A. building. Mrs. M. McInnes, of Augusta, presiding. The diocesan convention sessions are being held in St. Paul's church.
Following celebration of the holy communion at the opening session of the day, Bishop Reese delivered his annual address, which was a comprehensive review of work in the diocese and discussion of plans for the future. A number of important committees to serve during the convention were announced following the completion of Bishop Reese's address, and no session was held this afternoon, as the convention was held in the morning.
The Y. M. C. A. building at 11 o'clock. At 5 o'clock the visitors were given a automobile ride over the city, and this was followed by a reception by the Y. M. C. A. at the city hall. The convention was held tonight, and a very short service by the bishop, the following program of business was observed:
Report of board of missions by the Rev. F. A. Brown, secretary, report of the trustees of missions by the Rev. A. H. Moore; reports of the archdeacons; the Rev. J. Lawrence of the archdiocese of Albany, the Rev. William C. Martin of the archdiocese of Augusta, the Rev. D. W. Winn of the archdiocese of New York, and the Rev. S. J. McInnes of the archdiocese of Savannah; address by the Rev. F. A. Brown of Savannah, William K. Corcoran, of New York, and the Rev. S. J. McInnes of Savannah, was chosen secretary of the convention, and he appointed Rev. G. C. Williams, of Augusta, as assistant secretary.

WHEN the food reaches the stomach it is subjected to a peculiar churning movement by the muscular walls of the stomach.—(See Dr. Pierce's Medical Adviser, page 45). In the liver, kidneys and skin, the blood is purified of its waste materials—these organs act as human filters, leaving the blood pure and clean—unless liver, digestive tract and kidneys are clogged.

Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery is a stomach, liver and kidney tonic—by assisting the stomach to assimilate, the liver to filter, the kidneys to act—the poisons are removed, the red blood corpuscles are increased and one feels light, fresh and active instead of heavy and dull. The "Discovery" stimulates the stomach, increases action of heart and arteries and is a most satisfactory alternative in blood-taint of any character. The refreshing influence of this extract of native medicinal plants has been favorably known for over forty years. Everywhere some neighbor can tell you of the good it has done.

Sold by all medicine dealers in liquid or tablet form, or send $1.00 one-cent stamps to Dr. D. C. M. PIERCE, Buffalo, N. Y., a trial box will be mailed you.

THE NEW HAVEN OF THE "CIVILIZATION" He Wants to Tell Truth About New Haven Road, But McReynolds Objects. Commission and McReynolds in Clash.

Washington, May 13.—Today it was learned that further conferences would be held tomorrow with a view to having the interstate commerce commission pass on the question whether Mr. McLean and the New Haven directors should be placed on the matter on which it was believed Chief Counsel Folger might change his plans, if the attorney general would say that he contemplated criminal prosecutions against any of the witnesses subpoenaed by the commission.

The hearing in the New Haven investigation will be resumed tomorrow morning at 10 o'clock without any change in its original plan, Mr. McLean, president, and several of the directors of the New Haven, in the commission would say that he contemplated criminal prosecutions against any of the witnesses subpoenaed by the commission.

This statement, submitted late today by Commissioner McLean, closed a session of the interstate commerce commission which was held in conference between the department of justice and the interstate commerce commission concerning the placing on the witness stand of Charles S. McLean, former president, and several of the directors of the New Haven, in the commission would say that he contemplated criminal prosecutions against any of the witnesses subpoenaed by the commission.

lacked ammunition, and could not hold out. Federal gunboats took a position for a live target, and at 5 p. m. withdrew to the outer harbor. The reference was that they were getting out of range of the artillery. Shortly afterwards reports were received from Admiral Mayo that the evacuation had begun.

THE TAKING OF TAMPA, the next point in importance to Veracruz, was the most interesting question, as the federal forces held no reports heretofore.

The federal gunboats may seek to prevent arms and supplies from landing at Tampa, but such an interference with the international commerce might not be tolerated by the big ships there belonging to other countries. Carranza will press hard for possession of Tampa and San Luis Potosi. Fighting on the west coast was described, according to major reports, as a series of small engagements.

Mr. Williams said the new law was a plan of decentralization and distribution of arms in possession of the federal troops. "It was not intended to injure any man," he said, "and it will not injure any man, but those who insist on being injured."

MEASURES ARE BROUGHT BY NEW YORK So John Skelton Williams Tells the North Carolina Bankers—Square Business Is Protected by the Law.

Richmond, N. C., May 13.—The new federal banking law was described as not a declaration, but a guarantee of the freedom of the country, as it relieves financial institutions from the possibility of rule by a small group of men by John Skelton Williams, controller of the currency, in an address here tonight.

Mr. Williams said the new law was a plan of decentralization and distribution of arms in possession of the federal troops. "It was not intended to injure any man," he said, "and it will not injure any man, but those who insist on being injured."
